Hello, Genealogy Friends!

I hope you've enjoyed the variety of speakers we've presented in 2011, from our tour of the Indiana Room at the library, our LDS speaker who introduced the new Family History data base, our Native American women, Donna Kuhlman's Deeds, DNA, and Ulster-Scots. Attendance has been gratifying, and hopefully the upcoming 2012 programs will continue to hold your interest in our Genealogical Society! Some of you indicated that morning programs would better fit into your schedule, so we've offered our speakers a choice of time to present. Be sure to note the correct time on your calendar so you don't miss anything!

January 28

Jason Hatton will speak about accessing the newest Library edition of Ancestry, and Heritage Quest too. 10 am, Bartholomew County Library Red Room.

March 24

Lissa Shanahan from the Indiana State Library will talk about The Orphan Trains in America 1850 - 1930. 1 pm, Library Red Room.

May 19

Field Trip! This year, instead of our pitch-in picnic, we're going to lunch at Auntie Aimee's Tea Room in Hope, AFTER we tour the Moravian Church and Cemetery (IF weather is rainy, we'll still meet at the Church & do the Yellow Trail museum instead of the Cemetery.) We'll need a headcount for lunch, plan to carpool from the Library. Stay tuned! 9:15 am meet to carpool.

July 28

Sheila Kell of Yesteryears will talk about the complex adoption rules in different states. 1 pm, Library Red Room.

September 22

Ron Darrach is a return speaker, this time with a nod to the war of 1812. GB vs US - Round Two, Genealogy and The War of 1812. 1 pm, Library Red Room.

November 17

Daina Bohr, from Indiana State Library, speaks on the topic "But They Weren't From Indiana!", including folks from Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky and Illinois. Elections, too! 1 pm, Library Red Room.

There you go! Ideas come from member input, so be sure to tell any board member if a topic really catches your interest - or if you've heard a wonderful presenter you think we'd enjoy.

Looking forward to seeing lots of members and guests too in 2012!

2011 Annual Report

-by Margot Green

As I move into the role of past president of BCGS, I want to extend congratulations and a hearty welcome to our new president, Marcus Speer. Marcus is a BCGS founding member who has retained a keen interest in genealogy over the years. I am confident that BCGS will thrive as he leads it in partnership with our creative and capable board of directors, all of whom remain in their current roles. They have helped BCGS become a more vital, relevant, and constantly improving organization, and I appreciate their support during my four years as president. Special thanks to:

Treasurer Sarah Bush, who introduced me to BCGS late in 2005. In addition to keeping our finances in order and our members and surname lists up to date, Sarah has been a premier source of ideas for improvement.

Donna Kuhlman and Karen Loy, our two genealogists (and founding members) who consistently find ways to ferret out elusive genealogical information, break through brick walls and empower us to become better researchers – although we'll never be as good as they are! These three members, along with Jane Johnson, who was on the board until 2011, helped BCGS – and me – by providing continuity with the past and encouragement for the future.

I also want to applaud the four remaining board members, all of whom joined the board during my tenure - - Vice President Jen Rauch, Secretary Carolyn Wheeler, Ancestors Editor Kim Ray, and Fran Land, who became a board member late in 2011 and has already become invaluable – particularly in managing sales of our 1812 Veterans Calendar. Their assiduous attention to detail, creative approach to problem-solving, and appetite for change has made working with them a genuine pleasure.

Now for some official highlights of 2011, a very productive year for BCGS.

Membership

Our membership now stands at 65, including seventeen life members. In 2011 we welcomed seven new members: Judy Alexander, Helen Hiebsch, Barbara Cooper, Fran Land, Becky Speaker, Hillary Burbrink, and Elaine Hoefflin. We were, however, saddened by the loss of member Bill Chisman, who passed away in November.

Donations

Consistent with our mission to increase local genealogical research resources, we donated a number of books to the Bartholomew County Public Library in 2011. Our emphasis was on local records that were unavailable on the internet. One gift was a fifteen-volume set covering Shelby County cemeteries – given in honor of founding member and past BCGS president Marcella Jones. We also donated records of St. John's Lutheran Church (Columbus) including the Sunday School Record Book, the Church Record (Parish Register), and the Historical File (loose papers). In addition, we contributed a copy of the 1899-1939 Record Books from the Norman Funeral Home in Hope compiled by member Kim Ray. Finally, we were pleased to add to the collection member Jim Lower's book, entitled Four 1944 Graduates of Columbus High School: Who Did They Think They Were? All may be found in the Indiana Room.

Programs

Increased publicity through our partnership with the Bartholomew County Public Library contributed to increased attendance for our six 2011 programs. On January 22 Library Assistant Director Jason Hatton led a total of 58 (20 members and 38 guests) on a tour of the "Hidden Treasures of the Indiana Room." Drawing nearly that many attendees was our March 26 program featuring Kathleen Busselberg of the Family History Center. Kathleen guided us through the Beta version of the Family Search website and described resources available online and on-site at the Columbus Family History Center.

In our first morning program, May 21, sixteen members and eight guests explored "Native American Identity and the Challenges Faced in Tracing Native American Ancestors" as described by Charli Champion-Shaw of the Cheyenne-Arapahoe tribe of Oklahoma and Rebecca Victorino Martin of the Pueblo of Acoma in New Mexico. "Genealogical Gold Found in Deeds Records" was Donna Kuhlman's topic for our July 23 meeting, which also included a carry-in picnic and a materials exchange, and was attended by twenty members and four guests..

Fifteen members and eight guests attended Kenneth Morgan's September 17 program, a fascinating exploration of "Blood, Bones and DNA: What We Are Learning about the Human Family and How DNA Testing May Enhance Genealogical Research." On November 19, nineteen members and eleven guests came to hear Mark Lawson discuss the "Migration of Ulster Scots to the Colonies and the Influence of Scots Thinking on the American Revolution." This meeting also included our election of officers, with Marcus Speer taking over as president in 2012 and the other officers and board members remaining in their 2011 roles.

Projects

2011 saw the inception and completion of two major projects, our BCGS Website (www.barthigen.org) and our 2012 Calendar honoring veterans of the War of 1812. We had invaluable expert help in website construction from members, Larry Haak, Marcus Speer and, in the early stages, Diana Moore. We owe them all a huge round of applause!

Our calendar project was conceived in early October and went to the printer a mere four weeks later. The whole board participated, but special thanks go to Kim Ray, Fran Land, and Donna Kuhlman for photography and design and to Donna for genealogical research on the veterans. In addition, I did historical research on the war and wrote the text covering significant events in the conflict. Fran is heading up calendar marketing and may be reached at frances.land@comcast.net.

Note that this project is not ending with the sale of the calendars. Not only will proceeds from calendar sales be used to purchase War of 1812 grave markers for veterans, but Donna is continuing to work on identifying more veterans to be honored. Anyone with information about 1812 veterans with links to Bartholomew County is invited to contact Donna at donnakuhlman@comcast.net or by phone at 812 372-9274. We will be honoring veterans in Ancestors throughout the year and, who knows, if we have enough information, we may even produce a book!

In closing, my thanks to all of you, our members, who give BCGS life. My role is changing, but my commitment to BCGS remains powerful, and I am sure with new and continuing leadership our best days lie ahead !!

WAR OF 1812 VETERANS of BARTHOLOMEW CO. INDIANA

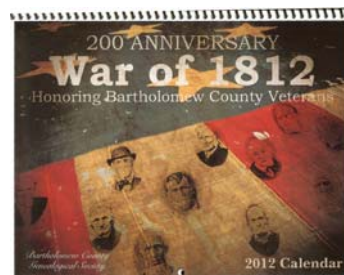

-by Donna Kuhlman

The War of 1812 was begun and ended long before anyone of European descent had scarcely set foot in what is now Bartholomew Co.; but the issues addressed in that conflict were directly involved in securing the heartland to the United States, and opening those lands for our ancestors to enter and settle. When stalwart pioneers began to purchase lands here in 1818, a significant number of them had served at some point during the late war.

When we looked for records of Bartholomew Co. veterans of the War of 1812, we soon realized there wasn't much to see. The 1888 History of Bartholomew Co. included a list of a hundred or so names, attributed to Gen. Terrell. This list has proved problematic: spelling errors, place of origin or service errors, a mixture of those who lived out their lives within the county and others who moved on elsewhere before their deaths (and at least one who never got here at all); and significant numbers of errors of omission—names not included as they should have been. The only other significant resource was a photo gallery included in the 1903-1904 Columbus City Directory. The photo collection is not large, but is rather astonishing, nonetheless: photographs of a group of men, most born ca. 1790, nearly all deceased by 1870.

From these humble beginnings, we have embarked on a mission to compile a better record, incorporating not just names, but dates, details of service, biographical sketches where available, and portraits or photos of burials sites, where those can be determined.

Yet another goal is to supply the known soldiers' graves with appropriate "War of 1812" markers. On very short notice, we produced a commemorative calendar for the year 2012, the 200th anniversary of the War of 1812. The calendar features some of the soldiers' portraits, photographs of their marked graves, and burials sites, as well as a bit of historical background on the conflict. Proceeds from the sale of the calendars will be used to procure these metal markers, which include flag-stands on the back.

What follows is the working inventory of known War of 1812 veterans of Bartholomew Co. With only a few exceptions, the project is limited to those actually buried within the confines of the county. If you know of others who should be added to the list, please contact us so we can include them; and if you have any additional information about these men, biographical background or military records especially, this information is particularly important to include. Thank you for your valuable assistance in this effort!

Upcoming issues of BCGS Newsletter will include a series of biographical sketches of some of these intrepid soldiers.

Send any pertinent details to: Donna Kuhlman, donnakuhlman@comcast.net or mail to BCGS, P.O. Box 2455, Columbus, IN 47201

Assistant Director
Bartholomew County Public Library

-by Jason Hatton

"The Republican will firmly and faithfully advocate the principles of the Republican Party. In addition to political matter, the Republican will, each week, present a summary of important news, and a good section of miscellaneous intelligence." This was from the prospectus for the Columbus Republican, a weekly newspaper that was started on April 4th, 1872- talk about media free from bias! It also happens to be the earliest newspaper that we here at the library have to view.

For those of you that aren't familiar, we are very fortunate to have drawers of microfilm (you remember microfilm...those reels you need a special machine to read) that provide very consistent access to the newspapers of yesteryear. It is amazing to me to be able to read this information in the same format as the early citizens of Bartholomew County.

Here at the library, we recognize that the preservation of the local news and history is one of our most important obligations. Since 1976, we have been indexing each issue of the newspaper for the important items of interest. This index started appropriately on index cards and is still being housed in the Reference staff area. Starting about 2 years ago, a staff member has been taking those index cards and inputting the information into our online catalog. We now have the index available online from about 1993-today. This is easily accessed from our home page- www.barth.lib.in.us. Click on "Search BCPL's Online Catalog." Up at the top of the screen you will see a drop down box with the word EVERYTHING in it. Click on the box and choose "Limit: The Republic Index." You can then enter the terms you are looking for. On the results page, you will see the title of the article, the year, a small summary of the article and finally the date and page information. Using that information, you can come to the library and we can get the proper film loaded for you.

Unfortunately, the one item that is not up to date in our online catalog is obituary information. It wasn't until about 2003 that we started entering obituaries into our system. However, thanks to the efforts of volunteers we have a print index of obituaries included in The Republic from 1970-2004. These are shelved in the Reference section of our Indiana Room with the call number of 929.3 ZE1. It is my hope that we will be able to get these into our online system one day.

I hope that if your research hasn't already brought you to our newspapers that you will take the opportunity soon to come over and lose yourself in the hustle and bustle of times gone by.

Henry Crist's Hunt for Blackberries Saves the Union Army at Peach Tree Creek

-by Chris Walker
Assistant Professor of History
Indiana Wesleyan University

One of the bloodiest engagements during General William T. Sherman's Atlanta Campaign was the Battle of Peach Tree Creek, which occurred on July 20, 1864. Henry H. Crist, a Hartsville native, played a particularly conspicuous role in this action. Crist was born April 17, 1827 in Franklin County, Indiana, and came to Bartholomew County as a young man. He married Emerine Rhoads, the daughter of Jacob and Esther Rhoads, on November 13, 1850 in Bartholomew County. In the summer of 1861, shortly after the outbreak of the Civil War, Crist and his brother-in-law, Henry H. Rhoads, enlisted together in Company I, 33rd Indiana Infantry. Company I had been recruited by Captain William A.W. Hauser, a nephew of Martin Hauser, the founder of Hope. The 33rd Indiana Infantry participated in many campaigns and battles: Wild Cat, Kentucky, Cumberland Gap Campaign, Thompson's Station, Tennessee, Atlanta Campaign, and the Carolinas Campaign.

The regiment's most extensive fighting occurred conducted between May and September of 1864. McBride described the fighting at Peach Tree the "severest the regiment and brigade had campaign." The 33rd Indiana, along with the rest of Division, had just crossed Peach Tree Creek on the was taking a few hours to relax from the rigors of a almost constant marching, digging entrenchments, with the enemy. Peach Tree Creek, now part of a area, was a stream about forty feet wide and ten bed, and impassable except by bridges.

during the Atlanta Campaign, Regimental historian John Creek, just north of Atlanta, as participated in during the the Second Brigade, Third morning of July 20, 1864, and campaign characterized by and skirmishing or fighting northern Atlanta suburban feet deep, with miry banks and Henry Crist wandered away from his regiment's camp to pick blackberries, a delicacy that certainly would have been a wonderful supplement to the meager soldier's diet. While in this exposed position, away from camp, he noticed the Confederates advancing toward the regiment's position. General John Bell Hood's Confederate Army of Tennessee had launched a surprise attack and threatened to drive Union forces into Peach Tree Creek. Crist immediately gave up his quest for berries and hastily ran toward brigade headquarters, where he informed Second Brigade Commander Colonel John Coburn of the Confederate advance. Coburn immediately ordered his brigade to "Fall in!" and advanced to meet the enemy. After a furious battle that lasted for several hours and included hand-to-hand fighting, the Union forces were victorious. Hood's Confederate forces were driven back toward Atlanta and Sherman's irresistible, steady advance toward Atlanta continued. Henry Crist's alertness and precipitous action no doubt saved the lives of many Union soldiers. Long after the war, Colonel Coburn wrote Crist a letter commending him for his valuable service in the Battle of Peach Tree Creek. The 33rd Indiana lost at least 20 killed and 71 wounded during the battle. Several of the regiment's dead were from Bartholomew County: Sergeant Christopher C. Painter, Private Walter F. Miller, Private George W. Holder, Private Shubal White, Private Benjamin F. Bryant, Private Napoleon B. Thayer, and Private Thomas H. Simmons. Simmons was brought back to his home and he is buried in the Simmons Cemetery in Haw Creek Township. Total Union casualties for the Battle of Peach Tree Creek were about 1,780 while Confederate casualties are estimated to have been about 4,500.

Crist survived the war and lived in Hartsville the rest of his years. He was a carpenter, a furniture salesman, and a real estate and insurance agent. He was a member of the Hartsville Methodist Church and the Hartsville GAR (Grand Army of the Republic) post. He and his wife had four children: Mary, Luella, Edward, and George W. Henry Crist died December 26, 1906 at the age of 79 and is buried at the Hartsville Baptist Cemetery. The pursuit of historical and genealogical studies reveals exciting stories about the people of our past. Henry H. Crist was a Civil War hero, an ordinary man from Hartsville who may very well have saved a large portion of the Union Army at the Battle of Peach Tree Creek on July 20, 1864.

-BY CAROLYN WHEELER

THE FINAL WEEKS OF THE YEAR ARE BUSY TIMES FOR ALL OF US, BUT WE HAD GOOD ATTENDANCE AT OUR NOVEMBER MEETING WITH 19 MEMBERS AND 11 GUESTS ATTENDING. OUR SPEAKER WAS MARK LAWSON, A TRUSTEE OF THE INDIANAPOLIS SCOTTISH SOCIETY. HE OPENED OUR EYES TO THE SIGNIFICANT INFLUENCE THE SCOTS HAD ON AMERICAN CULTURE.

MR. LAWSON SPOKE OF THE SCOTS MIGRATING TO THE U. S. IN THE 18TH AND 19TH CENTURIES, SETTLING IN THE SOUTHERN AND MID ATLANTIC STATES AS WELL AS CANADA. REASONS FOR EMIGRATING INCLUDED POLITICAL CHANGES, RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION AND DEPORTATION. ESPECIALLY AFTER THE BATTLE OF CULLODEN MOOR IN 1746, WHICH BROKE THE POWER OF THE CLANS, AMERICA SAW QUITE AN INFLUX OF SCOTS TO OUR SHORES.

IN THE 1700'S SCOTS WERE THE MOST LITERATE PEOPLE IN EUROPE. WHEN THEY ARRIVED IN AMERICA, EDUCATION WAS A TOP PRIORITY. ONE EXAMPLE WAS THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PRINCETON UNIVERSITY FOR THE PURPOSE OF TRAINING PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS. ALSO, MANY PEOPLE WITH SCOTTISH ROOTS MADE GREAT ACHIEVEMENTS, INCLUDING ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL WHO GAVE US THE TELEPHONE; ALEXANDER FLEMING WHO DISCOVERED PENICILLIN; ANDREW CARNEGIE WHO GAINED FAME AS A STEEL MAGNATE AND WHO ESTABLISHED HUNDREDS OF LIBRARIES; AND JOHN McADAM WHO MADE PAVED ROADS A REALITY.

SCOTTISH THINKING HAD A SIGNIFICANT INFLUENCE ON THE WRITERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE AND CONSTITUTION, TOO. MANY OF THE PHRASES ALLUDING TO BELIEFS IN EQUALITY UNDER THE LAW AND THE UNALIENABLE RIGHTS OF LIFE AND LIBERTY WERE FIRST USED IN SCOTTISH DOCUMENTS FROM THE 1300'S AND 1600'S. OUR SPEAKER NOTED THAT 22 SIGNERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE WERE OF SCOTTISH ANCESTRY.

MR. LAWSON CONCLUDED HIS TALK BY HIGHLIGHTING SOME OF THE TRAITS USUALLY ASSOCIATED WITH SCOTS-AMERICANS. HE SAID THEY TEND TO BE LOYAL TO FAMILY, FRIENDS AND COUNTRY; THEY ARE DEDICATED TO PUBLIC SERVICE; THEY DEFEND THEIR PRINCIPLES; THEY ARE INDEPENDENT AND SOMETIMES RESISTANT TO AUTHORITY; AND THEY OFTEN ARE KNOWN FOR HAVING REBELLIOUS NATURES. IT IS NO WONDER THAT GENERAL ROBERT E. LEE ALWAYS FELT THAT MEN OF SCOTTISH ANCESTRY MADE THE BEST SOLDIERS.

DID YOU KNOW...

- TARTANS WERE USED FOR CAMOUFLAGE ORIGINALLY?
- A "GREAT KILT" WAS MADE OF 8 YARDS OF WOOL?
- THE REBEL YELL CAME FROM THE SCOTS?
- HAGGIS IS A STAPLE OF THE SCOTS BECAUSE THEY WERE POOR AND HAD TO EAT THE LEFTOVER PARTS OF THE ANIMAL?
- BREAD PUDDING AND SHORTBREAD WERE THE CREATIONS OF THE SCOTS?
- THE CAMPBELLS AND THE McDONALDS WERE BITTER ENEMIES?
- EVERY CLAN HAS A MOTTO?
- ALBA GU BRATH MEANS "SCOTLAND FOREVER!"?

Surnames Being Researched by Members of the Bartholomew County Genealogical Society

December 2011

HOW TO USE:

Following each surname are the numbers of the members searching that surname. Check the Master list for the name and address of the member.

SUBMITTING YOUR SURNAMES:

It is our intent to update the Surname File annually by December 31. The new lists will contain only those who have paid their dues for that year.

Please do not resubmit surnames already under your number. Submit only corrections, deletions and additions. Please check the list for your surnames to see if your number is present before you send in your corrections or additions.

Corrections and additions can be sent to the society's email address listed below.
